Dear Walter:

25X1A9a

then went to Michigan where she got an M.A. in psychology and completed course work for a PhD, but has not yet written her thesis.

She has been told that the C.I.A. wants Social Psychologists, which is her field of specialization, though at present she

My reason for writing you is that I thought you or your secretary might tell her whom to see in the agency when she gets there. I have taken the liberty of telling her to call your office and this letter is to let you know that she will do so.

Incidentally, she has worked for several government departments during the war, as well as having had jobs with the New York State Government, the Government of Puerto Rico, and private employment.

I will appreciate very much any advice or assistance you may be able to give her in seeing the right people, especially as I know how busy you are and how many requests of this kind you probably get.

With many thanks,

Sincerely

STATINTL
